“Italian farmers cooperate in business – lessons EAF could learn from?”

Ladies and Gentlemen,

we would like to announce our EAF Annual Meeting 2010 that will take place in the Po Valley, in the North of Italy, near Bologna, from

Wednesday, June 9th to Sunday, June 13th, 2010

Po Valley is well known as an intensive farming region with a lot of changes having come up during the last years. We will focus on various forms of business cooperation to hedge against all kinds of risk. Besides this we will enjoy our Italian members' hospitality and taste the famous regional food and wine, of course.

In the beginning of this meeting we also will have a Committee Meeting and a General Assembly (extra invitation follows). The meeting ends with a fare-well dinner on Saturday evening. If you like, you may extend this trip with an extra holiday. Please let us know early enough to meet your wishes.

There are daily connections to Bologna from all European airports. The hotel offers a shuttle service; if you need it please note your data on the registration form.

The meeting costs (hotel in Minerbio, bus transports, meals, interpreter, organisation) will be 530 € per person in double rooms and 570 € per person in single rooms (non-members: + 150 €). One (1) person accompanying a member is also paying the members' price. Please note that for cancellations made after May 15th we have to charge a part of the meeting fee (see registration form).

Please register for the meeting by sending back the EAF Meeting form to the EAF office as soon as possible, at the latest by May 15th, 2010.

We look forward to meeting you in Italy and wish you a good journey.

Sincerely yours

European Arable Farmers
